NOTE
LOCATION

Dear Friends,

Our Spring Geranium Sale is our SECOND MAJOR FUNDRAISER.

To date, we have sold 1,114 less geraniums than last year with more members. If you have not yet purchased your geraniums (they will be stay in bloom until early December), please consider doing so as well as turning in any orders you have from your friends and neighbors.

Due to low sales, we are extending the sales period through April 21, 2026, the day of the April General meeting. We will be unable to accept orders after that date.

I know there has been a lot going on recently, but please consider placing your orders today. We would greatly appreciate it.

Sincerely, Joyce Skrobot, President

The ESO relaunch was held on April 7 with Muriel Pfeiffer as the guest of honor. We socialized, enjoyed tasty treats, played a literacy trivia game, learned more about ESO from Muriel and Denise Burke, learned the significance of the ESO crest from Jill DiZio, and made bookmarks. The group decided to meet quarterly. Stay Tuned!

Lotto and Berenson: Crossed Destinies follows the intertwined journeys of Lorenzo Lotto, a forgotten Renaissance master, and Bernard Berenson, the American Jewish art critic who resurrected his legacy. Through the eyes of actor Alessandro Sperduti, the cinematic production retraces Lotto's artistic path across Italy, uncovering the painter's personal and professional struggles. At the same time, it explores Berenson's fascination with Lotto's ability to capture the human soul, creating a profound reflection on art, ambition, and the fear of being forgotten.
